

SYNTHETIC VEHICLE FRAUD-DETECTION CLAIM

DEVELOPMENT / TESTING ONLY — NOT A REAL CLAIM

1. Customer Information

Field	Submitted Test Value
Full Name	Meena V
Email	meena.v@example.test
Phone	+91-90000-10004
Address	Tiruppur, Tamil Nadu, India
Synthetic Customer ID	CUST-AUTO-000104

2. Submitted Claim Inputs — Intentionally Inconsistent

Field	Submitted Test Value
Claim Title	Major accidental damage to insured vehicle
Claim Currency	INR (₹)
Claimed Amount	₹ 12,50,000
Incident Date	15 Apr 2027
Incident Location	Chennai Outer Ring Road, Tamil Nadu
Submitted Registration	TN-09-JK-6157
Submitted VIN / Chassis	SYNVIN105INNOVA
Reported Cause	Vehicle collision after loss of control
Driver Alcohol Involvement	Yes — synthetic test input
Priority	High Priority
Emergency Fast-Track	No

3. Incident Narrative

The claimant reports a major collision involving a Honda City V. The submitted claim states that the vehicle registration is TN-09-JK-6157 and the VIN/chassis is SYNVIN105INNOVA. The reported incident date is 15 Apr 2027 and the claimed repair amount is ₹12,50,000. The driver is reported as having consumed alcohol before driving. These values are intentionally fabricated and inconsistent with the reference policy for fraud-detection and validation testing.

4. Synthetic Repair Estimate

Field	Submitted Test Value
Front body and bumper	■ 1,80,000
Engine and transmission	■ 5,20,000
Airbag system	■ 2,00,000
Paint and labour	■ 1,50,000
Miscellaneous	■ 2,00,000
Total	■ 12,50,000